

Our NJ Do not Call law helps us maintain a better family life at a time when both parents work and the evening is the only time for the family to eat and speak together. This should not be compromised in ANY way through a weakening of the law.